Creator	Klein, Dr Renate
Creator's Activity/Occupation	Academics - Women's Studies - Academics - Biology - Feminists
Creator's Historical Note Renate Klein, PHD, was Associate Professor in Women's Studies at Deakin University, Victoria, until her retirement in 2006, and is the author and co-author of 14 books. She is a biologist and social scientist who has taught courses on Reproductive Medicine and Feminist Ethics. Since the 1980s she has conducted critical feminist research into the new and old reproductive technologies including international population control, IVF (fertility drugs), hormonal and immunological contraceptives, surrogacy, RU 486 and Gardasil. With Susan Hawthorne, she is the co-owner of Spinifex Press.

Scope and Content of Collection/Series The papers of Renata Klein are chronologically arranged, and document many aspects of her career and activism. The earliest records from the 1980s document her involvement in the emerging discipline of women's studies in Europe, America and eventually in Australia. These years also document her involvement with the feminist response to trends in reproductive technology and its physical and ethical implications for women. There are extensive records of the activities of FINRRAGE, the Feminist International Network of Resistance to Reproductive and Genetic Engineering in which Dr Klein participated, and the records demonstrate the strength of the international feminist and academic networks which debated these issues from the 1980s on. The records also contain correspondence, course materials and Dr Klein's writings. The papers were arranged by Susan Hawthorne and the contents of each box are listed, rather than the contents of each file.
