Creator	University Of Melbourne. Office Of The Vice-chancellor
Creator's Activity/Occupation	University administration - Vice-chancellors - Academics - Law
Creator's Historical Note Previous Control Number: UA4 When the University of Melbourne was formed by an Act of the Victorian Parliament in 1853 the positions of Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor were respectively filled pro tem. by Mr. Justice Redmond Barry and Hugh C. E. Childers until the first University Council elected them to these positions by ballot in May 1853. Despite several attempts to make the position of Vice-Chancellor the salaried chief executive officer of the University, it remained an honorary position from its commencement until 1933. The University Act of 1933 enabled the Council to appoint a salaried Vice-Chancellor and endow him with powers defined within the University's statutes. Statutes authorised him to exercise superintendence of the University's educational and administrative affairs and for discipline of students and staff. The former office of Vice-Chancellor became that of Deputy Chancellor. The first Vice-Chancellor thus appointed was Dr. Raymond Priestley who took up the position at the beginning of 1935. Successive Vice-Chancellors were: H.C.E. Childers, 1853; W.C. Haines, 1857; Anthony Brownless, 1858; Martin Howy Irving, 1887; Henry Wrixon, 1897; John Henry MacFarland, 1910; John Grice, 1918; John Monash, 1923; James Barrett, 1931; Raymond Priestley, 1934; John Medley, 1938; George Paton, 1951; David Derham, 1968; David Caro, 1982; David Penington, 1988.

PAPERS

Previous Control Number: UM364. The non-current committee papers were transferred each year from the Vice Chancellor's office to intermediate storage at the end of the year. They were stored in manila folders for each individual meeting that the Vice-Chancellor attended (or else, received papers for his information). The papers occasionally contain summaries of matters to be brought to the Committee's attention, usually from the Secretary to the Committee. Notes or copies of letters and memos from various senior administrative officers to the Vice-Chancellor also occur in the papers - for example, the Vice Principal, the Registrar etc. The papers have been culled and only those containing material additional to that contained in the official record have been retained - for example where Professor Caro and/or Sir David Derham have annotated pages etc., then all briefing notes and additional material has been kept. The committees in this series include: Academic Board, Administrative Committee, Administrators of the Academic Staff Retirement Fund , Administrators of the Disability Pension Fund, Administrators of the Samuel Gillott University Provident Fund, Alumni Association Committee, Audit Sub-Committee, Australian Vice-Chancellors Committee (AVCC), Board of Management for the Graduate School of Management, Central Budgets Committee, Committee of Deans of Faculties, Committee on Personal Chairs, Professorial Associates and Professorial Research Fellows, Council, Delegates of the Administrators of the Provident Fund, Engineering School Foundation Appeal, Engineering School Foundation Board of Management, Equal Opportunity Standing Committee, Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Graduate School of Management Foundation, Honorary Degrees, Institute of Applied Economic and Social Research Advisory Board, Investments Committee, Joint Committee on Policy, Legislation Committee, Melbourne Theatre Company Board of Management, Patents Committee, Pensions Committee, Victorian Vice-Chancellor's Committee and Works of Art Committee.
