HISTORICAL NOTE	Pierre Patrick Gorman was born in Melbourne in 1924 and educated at Melbourne University and Cambridge. Profoundly deaf from birth, he has had a distinguished academic career in deaf education in Australia, Canada and the UK and, as an advocate and adviser on services for the disabled, has sat on various government committees. His long- standing interest in Cambridge, both the university and the town, has resulted in his significant collection of books on Cambridge, which was acquired by the University of Melbourne's Baillieu Library in 1994.
