

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

NAME OF COLLECTION: WOOD AND SONS' YORKSHIRE BREWERY COMPANY LIMITED

ACCESSION NO: 102/16

HISTORICAL NOTE: The origins of this brewery trace to 1858 when John Wood opened a brewery in Collingwood. It traded as Wood and Ware until 1865 when it was restructured as John Wood & Sons. It closed in 1880. In 1883 James, Charles and John Wood sons of the late John Wood reopened the brewery and four years later the brothers formed Wood & Sons Yorkshire Brewery Company Limited. The business collapsed in 1893 and the assets sold. The building was ultimately acquired by Carlton and United Breweries. [Source Deutscher, Keith M. The Breweries of Australia: A History, 1999]
