HISTORICAL NOTE	The Technical Teachers College was established in 1954, first in Toorak. It formed part of the State College of Victoria (SCV) in 1973, when the Staff Association of the State College at Hawthorn (SASCOVAH) was formed under the State College of Victoria Staff Associations Council. In 1980 the SCV association amalgamated with the Victoria Institute of Colleges Staff Association Council to form the Council of Academic Staff (CASA). In 1982, when Federal awards replaced State awards, a Federal body of staff associations was set up in Canberra (FSAACAE). In the same year, the State College of Victoria at Hawthorn became the Hawthorn Institute of Education. With the enactment of the Victorian Post-Secondary Education Act in the late 1970s, the Hawthorn Institute of Education became independent but was obliged to merge with the University of Melbourne, becoming affiliated in 1991 and formally amalgamated with the University in 1996. Source: http://www.edfac.unimelb.edu.au/aboutus/welcome/history.html
