HISTORICAL NOTE	Mr Stanley Jackling was Chairman of Directors of the Mutual Permanent Building Society and its successor, the Statewide Building Society, in the early 1960s when they were affected by the 1960s recession. The Society went close to liquidation and was investigated by Phillip Opas Q.C. for the Victorian Government under Henry Bolte. It was saved and guided back to health under Stanley Jackling and other Directors. It later became the RESI Statewide Building Society and the Bank of Melbourne.
DATE OF TRANSFER	05/10/2004
ACCESS CONDITIONS	Access: Open
DESCRIPTION	Papers from the Mutual Permanent Building Society and the State Wide Permanent Building Society, including a precis of the Opas report on Mutual Permanent Building Society. Annual Reports, photographs, staff magazines.
NOTE ON COLLECTIONS	Contents of Box of historic materials gathered by Staney while Chairman of Directors of Mutual Permanent Building Society and Statewide Building Society. * Note: A copy of the 1960 Report was held. At the time of publication of '25 Years to Build a House' it was given to the printers so as to extract a photo of Kelvin Mark appearing on p. 13. It was lost by the printer. A fragment only is preserved by way of a photocopy of part of the page containing Kelvin Mark's photo. However information was used from this Report in the compilation of Appendix 8 to '25 Years to Build a House' (page 281) and attention is drawn to footnote 53.
