

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

NAME OF COLLECTION	Julian Phillips
ACCESSION NO	1992.0165
CATEGORY	University, individuals
DATE RANGE	1936-1988
SIZE OF COLLECTION	14 archives boxes Publication
HISTORICAL NOTE	Julian Phillips was a senior Lecturer in Law at the University of Melbourne and for a brief period acted as Vice-Chancellor. He was an outspoken advocate for social justice and active in reforming various social issues. Phillips' diverse interests included Industrial Law, the status of women, equal opportunity, sentencing penalties and homosexuality and its decriminalisation. Most prominent as a member of the Equal Opportunity Advisory Council, Julian Phillips advised on matters of race, age, sexual and gender discrimination. He was also a member of the United Nations Association of Australia, Committee Member for International Women's Year and a Member of the Homosexual Law Reform. The papers and research included in these files relate to Mr. Phillips' involvement and concerns, particularly discrimination, equal opportunity, criminal offences, issues relating to sexuality and the controversial Terry Stokes case.
ACCESS CONDITIONS	Access: Restricted
LISTED BY	Fay Anderson
DATE	December, 1992

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES
JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION

- the House Rules of Graduate House
- Julian Phillips was involved in the case, objecting to the expulsion and defending Stokes as Counsel.

General - Equal Opportunity material

- Canadian laws
- Copy of a complaint
- Complaints
- Interviewing Guidelines, and Action Guidelines
- Equal Opportunity publications:
 - pamphlets
 - guides
 - papers

Also file on:

- Working Women's Group
- Victorian Committee on Women
- National Committee on International Women's Year

Equal Opportunity Advisory Council:

- correspondence
- memorandum
- general background

Discrimination:

- press cuttings

Discriminations and AIDS:

Racial Discrimination:

- preview of Discrimination Act 1975
- civil actions

Age Discrimination:

- articles
- poster
- Publication on Race Discrimination

Note: Julian Phillips is a member of the Committee of Equal Opportunity Advisory Council.

Reports from Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission pertaining to:

- Annual Reports
(Not complete numerically)
- Basic Wage Judgements
- National Wage Case
- Annual Digest of Industrial Information

Miscellaneous

- Industrial Relations
Including the Fair Labour Standards Act of 1938
Industry Conference 1967
Case Ansett v. Wardley 1980
- House of Commons debates
- Report on Magistrates' Court
- Report on ???
- Report on Programme for Prisoners

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES
JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION

- Report on Land Purchases

Fay Anderson:jmm.Doc.Phillips.lst

December 1992

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION - Acc: 92/165

HISTORICAL NOTE

Julian Phillips was a senior Lecturer in Law at the University of Melbourne and for a brief period acted as Vice-Chancellor. He was an outspoken advocate for social justice and active in reforming various social issues. Phillips' diverse interests included Industrial Law, the status of women, equal opportunity, sentencing penalties and homosexuality and its decriminalisation.

Most prominent as a member of the Equal Opportunity Advisory Council, Julian Phillips advised on matters of race, age, sexual and gender discrimination. He was also a member of the United Nations Association of Australia, Committee Member for International Women's Year and a Member of the Homosexual Law Reform.

The papers and research included in these files relate to Mr. Phillips' involvement and concerns, particularly discrimination, equal opportunity, criminal offences, issues relating to sexuality and the controversial Terry Stokes case.

JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION

SERIES 1 Criminal Offences

- 1.1 Indecent assault, 1975-1976
- 1.2 Research reports on sexual offences, 1979-1981
- 1.3 Strahsheal review of crime
- 1.4 Sentencing and statistics
- 1.5 Complaints against police

SERIES 2 Issues relating to Homosexuality

- 2.1 Research reports
- 2.2 Literature, newspaper cuttings, newsletters on homosexuality
- 2.3 Homosexuality and the law
- 2.4 Law reform - general material
- 2.5 Law reform - notes
- 2.6 Decriminalisation of homosexuality

SERIES 3 'Unique' Files

- 3.1 Insurance Government Policy material, 1937
- 3.2 Terry Stokes case
- 3.3 Working Women's group
- 3.4 National Committee of International Women's Year

SERIES 4 Discrimination and Employment

- 4.1 Race discrimination - articles
- 4.2 Race discrimination - cases
- 4.3 Age discrimination
- 4.4 AIDS and discrimination
- 4.5 Job discrimination - newspaper cuttings

SERIES 5 Equal Opportunity

- 5.1 Equal Opportunity publications
- 5.2 Articles
- 5.3 Equal Opportunity - cases and guidelines
- 5.4 Transcripts of Equal Opportunity Board, 1979
- 5.5 Equal Opportunity Advisory Council

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES
JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION

SERIES 6 Reports from Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission (Not complete)

SERIES 7 Industrial, Labour and Trade material

7.1 Publications

7.2 Cases

SERIES 8-10 Unlisted

Additional Material - General

- 8 identical posters of Employment without Prejudice
- 26 editions of '02' publication
- 4 alternative magazines
- review of the Programme for Prisoners by B.L. Murray, 1988
- report on the future role of Magistrate's Court - appendices Vol. 2
- report on gun control, 1982
- report on land purchases by Housing Committee
- House of Commons Debates, 1960
- Hearings before Equal Opportunity Commission, 1978

Books

- Civil Liberties and a Bill of Rights
- Victorian Year Book 1964 and 1965
- Year Book Australia 1966

Files of Julian Phillips

- Correspondence
- Work in law reform, homosexual study, sexual equality - ?? reform
- Research on subject - law historian interested in various social issues
- active in reform
- Diverse interests: member of U.N. Association of Australia, and Committee Member for International Women's Year 1975; interested in industrial law
- Member of Equal Opportunity Advisory Council advising on matters of discrimination in the courts, including race, sexual, equal opportunity, age
- Senior Lecturer in Law, Melbourne University
- Acted as Vice-Chancellor

Little personal information in the files, with the exception of correspondence regarding Stokes in 1979.

Criminal Offences

- 1) Indecent Assault
 - handwritten notes
 - statistical
 - newspapers
- 2) Research Reports
 - report on the Age of Consent
 - working paper on sexual offences
 - sentencing
- 3) Statistical Review of Crime
 - 2 books

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES
JULIAN PHILLIPS COLLECTION

- 4) Sentencing and Statistics
 - articles
 - report
 - case file

- 5) Complaints against Police
 - booklet
 - memorandum
 - journal articles and publications
 - poems
 - manifestos
 - newsletters from 'gay' organisations

- * Notice of General Meeting

- Research on Homosexuality
- Reports on Equal Opportunity
- News articles on law and sexual equality and reform
- Correspondence regarding the above

Homosexual Research

- Papers
- Reports
- Copy of Crime (Sexual Offences) Act 1980
- Recommendations for Amendments
- Proposals for Reform
- Criminal Law Consolidation Act, 1935-1974

Decriminalisation of Homosexuality 1973

- Copy of Sexual act 1967
- Correspondence

Letter to Senator Murphy (?)

Insurance Government Policy Papers, 1936

- Correspondence, 1936-1937
- Various copies of Acts
- Amendments
- Legislative Assembly
- Memorandums
- Copy of an insurance policy

Original folder has 'Corbet, J.D.'

Terry Stokes - Graduate House, 1979

- Correspondence about Stokes expulsion (original and carbon), and statements (confidential)
- A copy of the appeal
- Regulations of Graduate House
- Radio interview regarding the expulsion
- Interview with Stokes
- Copy of Memorandum of the Graduate Union
- Note from Terry Stokes

Note:

- Terry Stokes' expulsion surrounded his homosexuality and for breaking