

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

NAME OF COLLECTION	UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE. FACULTY OF VETERINARY SCIENCE
ACCESSION NO	1981.0029
CATEGORY	University, official
ACTIVITY	University faculties, University committee
DATE RANGE	1918-1924
SIZE OF COLLECTION	4 cm. Publication
HISTORICAL NOTE	Following training and private practice in England, W.T. Kendall arrived in Melbourne in 1880, creating the Melbourne Veterinary College in 1888, which was taken over by the University of Melbourne with the opening of the Veterinary School in 1909. The Faculty was first constituted in 1909, meeting first on 20th April of that year. Based off the campus in Parkville, the faculty in 1966 established a Clinical Centre at Werribee, where teaching and research are also conducted. Students spend the first three years at Parkville, and the final two at Werribee (when many of them live in the Kendall Hall of Residence). The Faculty also provides veterinary services to the public and to the livestock and bloodstock industries.
ACCESS CONDITIONS	Access: Restricted
DESCRIPTION	Prospectus 1918, 33pp. Illustrations; prospectus 1924, 35pp. Illustrations. Both books have sections on history, buildings, scholarships, lists of graduates, list of graduates and licentiates holding public appointments syllabus. Papers relating to Estate and Scholarship of John Nevill.
NOTE ON COLLECTIONS	For an account of the foundation and closing of the Veterinary School see Scott's History of the university pp.186-187. Other records concerning the teaching of veterinary medicine in Melbourne are in the collections of W.T, Kendall (principal of the Melbourne Veterinary college) and of Professor J. A. Steel (Professor Veterinary Physiology 1965-77).

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

RECORDS RECEIVED INTO CUSTODY

NAME: UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE VETERINARY SCHOOL

TRANSFEROR: Baillieu Library ? Both items bear the stamp of the old Central Library

DATE RECEIVED: Unknown

GENERAL NOTE: For an account of the foundation and closing of the Veterinary School see Scott's History of the University of Melbourne pp.186-7. Other records concerning the teaching of veterinary medicine in Melbourne are in the collections of W.T. Kendell (Principal of the Melbourne Veterinary College) and of Professor J. A. Steel (Professor Veterinary Physiology 1965-77).

LIST OF RECORDS:

1. Prospectus 1918 33pp. Illustrations: Research Institute, Museum and Anatomy Department
"Cuming" operating theatre and hospital.
Operating theatre (with operation on horse in progress).
Students' laboratory.
The Clinic (showing queue of patients, and staff)
Staff and Students 1916
Biology School (seen across lake)
Patients being examined (horses only)
Canine surgery
Pharmacy
2. Prospectus 1924 35pp. Illustrations: Staff and Students
Other illustrations as above

Both booklets have sections on history, buildings, scholarships, lists of graduates, lists of graduates and licentiates holding public appointments, syllabus.