

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

NAME OF COLLECTION	Victorian Women Graduates' Association (formerly Australian Federation Of University Women)
ACCESSION NO	1974.0091
CATEGORY	University Club/Society
ACTIVITY	Clubs, social and cultural
DATE RANGE	1959-1959
SIZE OF COLLECTION	6 cm.
HISTORICAL NOTE	Established in 1920 to co-ordinate social, intellectual and fund-raising activities, the Association was renamed the Victorian University Women Graduates' Association in 1969 and in 1975 became the Australian Federation of University of Women.
DATE OF TRANSFER	17 Oct 1974
ACCESS CONDITIONS	Access: Open
DESCRIPTION	Centenary Memorial Book; Letters and compliments slip (within the book).
LISTED BY	Cecily Close
DATE	17 Oct 1974

UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES

RECORDS RECEIVED INTO CUSTODY.

NAME: Victorian Women Graduates' Association

TRANSFEROR: Sir George Paton, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Melbourne.

1. Centenary Memorial Book; recording the names of women in whose honour the Wilson Hall Memorial Screen was presented, and the names of its donors.

Dark blue leather-covered volume with title and University crest in gold (8½ x 11 x 1).
2. Edith Dew to Miss Taylor. Letter acknowledging cheque and enclosing advice on care of Centenary Memorial Book 2 Feb. (no year).
3. Olive Battersby to Lady Paton. Sends the above letter asking that it be placed in Book. 6 May 1959.
4. Compliments slip from Vice-Chancellor. n.d.
5. N.B. Items 2 - 4 are inside book, in Archives box "Victorian Women Graduates' Association".

17th October 1974

Cecily Close
Senior Assistant Archivist.