HISTORICAL NOTE	Published monthly from February 1972, the Women's Liberation Newsletter (WLN) was a means of communicating between the various Victorian women's liberation movement groups and activists. It provided information about events and meetings, published the minutes of the monthly general meetings and was a forum for ideas. The collective disbanded at the end of 1984. The material in this collection is from the collective founded a year later, publishing WLN in a different format from March 1986-1994.
