 PAPERS OF LEONARD J TIERNEY

Creator	Tierney, Dr Leonard James OAM
Creator's Activity/Occupation	Academics - Social work

Creator's Historical Note

Leonard J Tierney was born at Sea Lake Victoria on 5 May 1925. In 1947 he graduated from the University of Melbourne with a Bachelor of Arts and a Diploma of Social Studies. He then successfully attained his Master of Science in Social Work (1954) and Doctorate (1974) from New Yorks Columbia University. He was appointed to The University of Melbourne in 1961 and became Reader in Charge in 1964. He remained with the University until his retirement in 1990 where he extended the School of Social Works curriculum to develop it into the first major post-graduate program in Australia. He was a leading practitioner and scholar and although his writing focused mostly on family and child welfare his research was spread across the diverse areas of social work. An inspirational mentor, Tierney was an active member of both government and non-government community organisations and held the position of Director of Social Work of the Citizens Welfare Service; which incorporated research work with the Family Service Project (Camp Pell), and the Brotherhood of St Laurence (1950s-1960s). He also resided or advised on a number of Boards of Management including Honorary Consultant for The Christian Brothers Review Committee (1983), Member Advisory Group of Catholic Family Welfare Bureau and Catholic Welfare Services (1983-1984). In 1971 he received the Victorian Council of Social Service Award for services to the Victorian Community. He was made an Honorary Life Member of the Australian Association of Social Workers in 1976, and awarded an Order of Australia Medal in 1992. Dr Leonard James Tierney OAM died on 14 April 1996.

Creator's Activity/Occupation	Academics - Social studies

Creator's Historical Note

Ruth Hoban was educated at Methodist Ladies College and the University of Melbourne where she graduated B.A., B.Comm, Dip. Ed. In 1932, Hoban taught at Melbourne Girls' College until she resigned in 1937 to embark on studies at the University of London. Hoban returned to Melbourne with a Certificate of Social Sciences and Administration in 1940 and was appointed social worker for the International Refugees' Council and Victorian Housing Commission. In 1942 Hoban resigned and became a lecturer in Social Studies at the University of Melbourne until 1944 when she became Director of the Department. Hoban was promoted as Associate Professor in 1957. She resigned from both positions in 1963 and became Associate Professor of the Institute of Applied Economic and Social research in 1971 to 1973. Hoban then embarked on private research which included research on Sulina Sutherland, which was published in the Australian Dictionary of Biography. Hoban married the historian, R.M. Crawford in 1958. She died on 12 March 1996.
