HISTORICAL NOTE	John Malcolm Fraser was born in Toorak, Melbourne on 21 May 1930. His grandfather, Sir Simon Fraser (1832–1919), had emigrated from Canada in 1853, initially to work as a prospector, but later moving into business, farming and politics. He was elected to the Victorian Legislative Assembly in 1874 and later served as a delegate to the Australasian Federal Convention (1897–1898) and a senator representing the Free Trade Party (1901–1913). Malcolm's father, John Neville Fraser (1890–1962), studied law at the University of Oxford, but on his return to Australia concerned himself largely with his work as a pastoralist. In 1926, he married Una Woolf. Neville and Una had two children: Lorraine (1926–) and (John) Malcolm (1930–). The Fraser family lived at Balpool-Nyang near Moulamein in New South Wales before moving to 'Nareen', a station in western Victoria, in 1943. During this period Malcolm attended Tudor House School in New South Wales (1940–1943) and Melbourne Grammar (1944–1948). In 1949, he was admitted to the University of Oxford to study 'Modern Greats' (Politics, Philosophy and Economics). After graduating, Malcolm Fraser returned to Victoria and decided to embark on a political career. He succeeded in being elected as Liberal member for the seat of Wannon in western Victoria at his second attempt in 1955. A backbencher under Menzies for ten years, Fraser gained his first cabinet post as Minister for the Army under Prime Minister Harold Holt in 1966. He went on to become Minister for

	Education and Science (1968–1969 and 1971–1972) and Minister for Defence (1969–1971). Following the Labor government's election win in 1972, he served as Shadow Minister for Industrial Relations. He became leader of the Liberal Party in March 1975 and in November became caretaker Prime Minister after the Governor-General, Sir John Kerr, dismissed the Whitlam government. He was returned to office through election victories in 1975, 1977 and 1980, before losing to Bob Hawke at the 1983 election. He resigned from politics in March 1983. Following his formal political career, Malcolm Fraser has continued a presence on the world stage, as Chair of the United Nations Panel of Eminent Persons on the Role of Transnational Corporations in South Africa (1985); as Co-Chair of the Commonwealth Group of Eminent Persons campaigning for an end to apartheid in South Africa (1985–1986); and Chair of the UN Secretary-General's Expert Group on African Commodity Issues (1989–1990). In 1987 he founded CARE Australia, the country's largest non-political and non-religious overseas aid organisation and was president of CARE International from 1990 to 1995. In 1997, he led a Commonwealth Observer Mission to Pakistan to monitor the national elections. Malcolm Fraser remains actively interested in issues associated with human rights, multiculturalism and reconciliation with indigenous Australians. He has been highly critical of the Howard government's involvement in the war in Iraq, as well as of its treatment of asylum seekers.

DESCRIPTION	This series is the second of two series of general correspondence of J M (Malcolm) Fraser, maintained while he was Leader of the Opposition (March–November 1975). It covers the period from late August to 12 December 1975 (the eve of the general election), and consequently also includes the month when he was 'caretaker' Prime Minister following the dismissal of the Whitlam Labor Government. Most of the files contain earlier papers, so there is some overlap with the first series (Acc. No. 106/15, [formerly NAA M1336]). Some other papers, where action was not concluded until December, clearly relate to matters addressed to Mr Fraser as Leader of the Opposition. There are a small number of papers received immediately after the dismissal, however, which relate directly to Government policy and action in the 'caretaker' period. The files and the papers within them are arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent. They mainly include representations from members of the public, companies, small businesses, professional bodies, church and other community organisations. Some personal correspondence with friends and colleagues is also present in the series. The correspondence covers a wide range of subjects and includes several submissions and reports on major issues, publications and news cuttings.

NOTE ON COLLECTIONS	This series was transferred from the National Archives of Australia (NAA) in two consignments in February 2006 (2006.0018) and July 2011 (2011.0069), which have been amalgamated.
NOTE ON LISTING	Single number system imposed by NAA; arranged alphabetically. List shows only items held at the University of Melbourne Archives. This list amalgamates 2006.0018 and 2011.0069.
