HISTORICAL NOTE	The company began in 1869 in Melbourne, Australia. During this time it was known as the National Mutual Life Association of Australasia. National Mutual expanded across Australia throughout the early 1900's and amalgamated with many smaller mutual societies. By 1983 National Mutual merged with a large well known insurance company called T &amp; G Mutual Life Society. After this significant merger the company expanded throughout the Asia Pacific region acquiring companies within Singapore, Thailand and the Philippines. In 1999 the company changed its name to AXA Asia Pacific Holdings. It specialises in life insurance, superannuation, funds management and income protection. The multiple businesses that were operating collectively with National Mutual at the time also altered their company names to incorporate the AXA brand.

NOTE ON COLLECTIONS	Original control number: NMLS 138. This series consists of maturity claim numbered M1-M43 in respect of Table IV policies and claims numbered E1-E100 in respect of Table 'B'. There are a number of Mutual Assurance Society of Victoria policies in these groups. It has been assumed that the prefix 'M' before the claim number is merely to denote 'Maturity' number. 'M' before the policy number denotes a Mutual Assurance Society of Victoria policy. Claims packet may contain any or all of the following documents: proposals, friends reports, health evidence, proof of age, roof of ownership, proof of death, assignments, policy, statutory declarations or other correspondence pertaining to issue of policies and settlement of the claims. Although these claims are written up as Head Office it should be remembered that Head Office dealt with all Victorian matters until Victoria Branch was established in 1938. Related series: NMLS 115-137 and NMLS 139-140.
