Collection/Series Title: FRASER, JOHN MALCOLM

Creator	Fraser, John Malcolm
Creator's Activity/Occupation	Politicians - Farmers - Prime ministers
Creator's Historical Note (John) Malcolm Fraser was born on 21 May 1930 in Melbourne. The Fraser family lived in NSW before moving to 'Nareen', a sheep station in western Victoria, in 1943. Malcolm Fraser attended Tudor House School in NSW (1940-1943) and Melbourne Grammar (1944-1948). In 1949 he was admitted to the University of Oxford to study 'Modern Greats' (politics, philosophy and economics). Malcolm Fraser was elected Liberal member for Wannon in Western Victoria in 1955. He gained his first Cabinet post as Minister for the Army in 1966 and later became Minister for Education and Science (1968-1969 and 1971-1972) and Minister for Defence (1969-1971). He became leader of the Liberal Party in March 1975, and in November was appointed caretaker Prime Minister following the dismissal of the Whitlam government. He served as Prime Minister until 1983. Following his political career, Malcolm Fraser has maintained a role in world affairs, as Co-Chair of the Commonwealth Eminent Persons Group on South Africa (1985-1986) and Chair of the UN Secretary-General's Expert Group on African Commodity Issues (1989-1990). In 1987 he founded CARE Australia, the country's largest non-political, non-religious overseas aid organisation. In 1997 he led a Commonwealth Observer Mission to Pakistan to monitor the national elections. Malcolm Fraser remained actively interested in issues such as human rights and the rule of law until his death on 20 March 2015.

Scope and Content of Collection/Series

Speech notes and related papers. This series of speech notes, addresses, articles and related papers of J M (Malcolm) Fraser dates from early March 1972, when he was Minister for Education and Science in the McMahon Government to February 1983, shortly before the end of his own Government. It includes the period when he was an Opposition spokesman (1973- 75) and, more particularly, Leader of the Opposition (March-November 1975) during the Whitlam Labor Government. The speeches were given to various professional and business associations, Parliament, Liberal Party branches, community organisations, civic receptions, political rallies, etc. They cover a wide range of subjects to suit the audience or focus on particular political issues. Subject include open government, rural production, primary industry, Australian Security Intelligence Organisation, Commonwealth-State relations, mining industry, industrial relations, inflation, interest rates, petrol prices, health policy, Australia's relationship with South East Asia, etc. The series is essentially filed in chronological order, each file recording the date, occasion and sometimes title of the speech. A number of items are currently held at the National Archives of Australia (see list for details). Formerly National Archives of Australia series M1263.
