Horney: The Flight from Womanhood. 1926

My primary intention in this paper was to indicate a possible source of error arising out of the sex of the speaker, and by so doing to make a step forward toward the goal that we are all striving to reach: to get beyond the subjectivity of the masculine or the feminine standpoint and to obtain a picture of the mental development of women that will be more true to the facts of her nature — with its specific qualities and its differences from that of man — than any we have hitherto achieved.
