The ideology which ascribed activity to masculinity played here the outstanding role.

41 One has the right to doubt whether the war between the baboons was as cruel and deleterious for males and females when they are free.

52 One of the fundamental causes of aggressiveness seems to be some socially conditioned concepts regarding masculinity and femininity. How far an individual can resist such ideology.

Women's verbal aggression.

137 The demand of perfection in The Love Object is very often the expression of hostile tendencies and an attempt to subdue the love object.
