Lombard St.,

Dear Sir,

I hereby beg leave to introduce to your acquaintance the Baroness herself, Thos. Gold... Esq., for some years past a respectable merchant of this place, one of the representatives in Assembly for the Parish of Clarendon — As the carrier a letter to you from our mutual friend Archibald Mackenzie Esq. I thought it almost needless my giving this letter, was it not, in a great measure, to testify my regard for the Baroness for her —

From his long residence in this Island of the very extensive scene of business he has been in, he is possessed of much information; I hope therefore persuaded you will find him a very agreeable acquaintance. Being a stranger in Bristol, they seem to solicit your kind attention to him: the above you that your Civilities are shall be gratefully remembered by Dea. Sir.

Your obliga friend t. Loux.
