Sir,

Your very obliging letter I have received, and beg you will not give yourself the trouble of sending over to show me the way to my aunt's house, as I am sorry to say I have by no means accepted of her offer, nor will I put it in her power to treat me in the manner she has hitherto done, by your letter to the you seem to think it my fault. That it is in the power of my father, to change one time his mother, that the every creature has come in her way as she has from me to expose him as my one all the he was so closet as to endeavour all in his power to hurt me by saying some strange to his name and that I have not nothing left in the world but what my family gave me when all the same time he knew that I was so held the Exposer with my aunt sincerely forgive him and God grant he repent and reform so much conclude with my best respects to you and Mr. Brighth and convey your Most humblest
