Messrs. Downall & Caldwel

Gentlemen,

I returned an answer last Post to the above form of its last directive, St. Andrews, yesterday, i.e. this Hallman's Letter of 23rd. which I conceive answers, by my Letter of the 19th

Situation, as those states, having a Power of Attorney from the adverse Party. I cannot act differently without forfeiting my honor, which I trust none will be the case on any occasion. When the point at issue between the Contending Claimants is decided, I shall willingly respectfully refer to the Law. I hope whenever that situation shall not in any shape be found wanting, as I shall continue acts in the management of the Property in question, as the late Justice was existing, which he found very lucrative.

I remain with much Respect
