Dear Brother,

Sept. 13.

On our return from Shakesheaf, I found both your kind letters and should not have written till next. Don't for goodness sake read all. I thought you might have been anxious about the Bill — I am sorry my inquiries have been unsuccessful about the Physician. Everything seems to be mentally burned and whilst I was at Blackwood two young fell to enter the Bath. One under the dying encouragement. I shall whether or not as you as to his own health of this. I am

Perhaps the other or his own health. All is well. Mary sends her kind love and to God be pleased for a long or two. Give her a kiss.

Yours ever,
