Sir,

Cohasset January 6, 1777

I recived your Letter of the fourth December I was with Mr. Griswold he told me that he would send you four or five and twenty pounds in a week or nine days Mr. Griswold is caled a good natured man in his neibourhood but I think he is not likely to do any good on it he have a large family coming one apace.

I have not recived your money agent for puricraft copy but as soon as shaw will take it to worcester to miss Bright and shaw she will send it to you I have not done anything to the warehouse at the cummins but I think it is agiong time to fall the timber I have had the opinion of an aason and he says it will take twelve thousand of bricks I am very glad to hear that you recived your apples my wife and daughter remain in duty to you and am sir your dutiful servant
