Dear Bro

Had not known Polly been so soon to leave us, I should before this have acknowledg'd ye favour of your letter, with ye sincerest thanks for your generous compliance with my request, as well as friendly assistance in bringing ye affair to some determination. If ye match takes place I hope she will be ye happy woman her friends wish, if she her self expects to be, but in case Mr Baker doe not accept ye terms, shall hope both parties will then consider it's for their mutual advantage to put an entire end to ye affair.

I am very glad to find my Mother is so comfortable settled, as will now have an agreeable companion in Mrs Longman a much cheerfuler situation than in Queen's Street, therefore hope she will now think her self perfectly happy.
