Hon. Sir,

We are now under way with a fair wind, and hope soon to be at Cork, everything on board is very well. Capt. Floyd writes you with the names of the people on board. I forgot to desire you to insure my part of the adventure as I cannot afford to run any risk, also Fifty Pounds on Wearing apparel, Wads, Books,

An very fortunate in having such fine weather, as yet am not sick only a little queasy, will write you more particular when I come to Cork. I beg my Duty to my aunt, with Love to Dicky, and best Respects to Mr. Muter and Mrs. Lott, and believe me to be, with my most earnest Wishes for a continuance of your health &c., and my thanks for the many favours have accot'd from you. Sir,

Your Dutiful,

Lowbridge Bright

Will be very well and desires to be remembered to all.

Off the Holmoe, to part from Lady.
