St. Andrew Jamaica 10th July 1800

Dear Sir,

I am concerned it so happens that I have not time to reply to your favor of 1st May but which I hope to do in a few days by the fleet to sail 20 instant.

The present serves to hand you Mr. Henry West's draft on Herring of London in your favor for £155 3:7 Sterling being for your share of the proportion of £125 last bond & interest received 31st October last as state at first and which I hope will duly be done.

The premium on bills is still at 20 p.c.

Thank God I continue well. I am very anxious for the fate of my worthy young friend Mr. Henry Baker, who was very unfortunatly taken ill with symptoms of fever, the day he embarked. But as his present health whom he spent some time to his relief, who has wrote from thence by Post, does not make any mention of his being worse, am in hopes the symptoms are off and that he will arrive in as good health as he enjoyed the whole time he was here.

I remain with best wishes for your every welfare.

Dear Sir,

Your obliged & obedient servant,
