Mr. D. Hetherington Esq.

To

W. A. Hunter

My Dear Peter,

Magdalena and Edward my De arrived here on Saturday. I was very much astonished to see them, and to hear of the very things that went on in Surinam. I was very sorry to hear it, but I really forgave Captain Haywood as he was very much involved in difficulties. I understand his affairs are very bad, which I am very sorry to hear. But I hope nothing to God he will endeavour to come. Thence to England to see his children, advise him to return soon and give me the (as well as myself) Plantations. Captain Haywood was very happy to hear of his declining health, only giving my love to him, and that him a cottage in England in England for portable residing in Surinam. I hope my dear
Dear Brother, let me beg of you to reason with him and continue to persuade him to return to England. I should have written to him myself, but am very poorly. I was in Gloucestershire about two months ago and we had Jack and Mary Banna christened, and so it was always your wish to be unlike a Godfather, we therefore got George Garlick to stand proxy for you. You must now excuse my saying no more as I want to write to my Brother and must, therefore, conclude with wishing you to remember me very kindly to your circle, and believe me ever to remain your affectionate Sister,

Mrs. C. Ingram.
