Mr. Rev. J. Haynard
Caram, 1st March 1828

I shall be pleased to hear from you on the subject referred to, viz., the conveyance of a cargo of goods from New York to Cadiz, the consignees being Bankers in Cadiz. The consignees have given me an order for a cargo of sugar, and I am anxious to know if you are able to undertake the conveyance of this cargo,

I have now written to the consignees, informing them of my willingness to undertake the conveyance of the sugar, and I trust that you will be able to assist me in this matter.

I look forward to hearing from you soon on this important subject.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

L. Smith
to concern myself, as it is almost impossible to do away with one party's consent by which the other party might be rendered