On the - Pat wasn't

OAK.

Phew!!!
Pat Quinn caught this horse whilst riding along the road near Maryaratta the next. Mr. Sadlier, who was coming from Telly or some where on that night, Quinn told Mr. Sadlier what he had been in the previous day to determine the spot to Mine. Mr. Sadlier, Captain rode in as fast as he could to Maryaratta telegraphed there to Mr. Redfern that he had some important information. He was to get every thing for an early start that Mr. Sadlier could be at Bangalla by the last train. On his arrival... at Brecalla he gave all the information to Mr. Nixton that it was arranged that the black trackers and party of men were to start away at one o'clock next Monday.
Mr. Nixton, Mr. Bell, Mr. Comman were to accompany the party. Captain Standish was telegraphed to come up to Brecalla by early train next Friday. at one o'clock in the day the men were all ready with their horses saddled.
I shall secure an early change of the scene and Mr. Nixton from orders for the saddle. been thinking about the matter all night. I have decided not to disturb the author's part from Aden, but sent a note to that house to Capt. Standish telling him not to come up to Melaka, and if possible it would be advisable if the original telegram could be found, because I am told although the telegram was time still the whole truth had not been told. Sept-Stede was telegraphed to on the subject this morning. 51 In Saddle arrived at Benalla he begged to be allowed to go but after the Shillars box was not found.

permission. It will be necessary to have the exact spot where the Shillars box was taken was the shot properly known to be the Saddle. But he immediately thought he could find the tracks and besides which Pat Quinn could have been communicated with during the night or the only witness.
Some 15 or 20 miles from Beaufort he could have seen a man the mast spot he had been the outlaws. He could have put the trackers on the track, within 30 hours of the time they had been there.

Mr. Sadler can prove the three