Mr. [Illegible] compliment to Mr. Hayward and begs leave to let him know, that having given notice yesterday to Mr. Presburg, that Mr. Hayward will not pay the act of acquittance in behalf of Mr. Presburg and Mr. Herbert without taking over at the same time the vouchers belonging to the Boedel of Hayward and M. F. Wiltens Andree, and that he was going to suit them therefore, he had at evening a conversation with Mr. P. about his interest to both Boedels; that he took notice of the answer of Mr. P. on the arrest of Mr. Thym, which answer Mr. P. can not deny is in favour of Mr. A. Hayward, Mr. Presburg having answered that the arrest was made too late (?), because the order of taking over the share in the plantation Pieterszorg was signed and given over to you since Saturday - Mr. P. told further to Mr. V. that the manner on which the arrest was done, will not retain him from giving over to Mr. Trask as a neutral person the vouchers of both estates, that in two or three days the duplicate of the account of the Boedel W.A. will be ready, and in the mean time the vouchers of the Bl. Hayward can be taken over by Mr. Trask, on a provisional receipt of Mr. Hayward, conform the herinclosed (?). Mr. Hayward will have the kindness to look over that (?) in order to come in an agreement with Mr. P.

Paramo. 26 March 1833.

To I. Hayward, Esqre.
