Dear Sir,

The above are all the goods that I am able to send from your order No. 1689. Please note, after the authorities search, no evidence of their importation was found. I must inform you that they have been seized.
been told with a large mass of facts that I have recently read. No. 1699. "Devi Princeps," led from the shelves, that I suppose also were 1702 and 1778. These should either of these two be found, they will be returned for you.

I am not acquainted with any separate publications on Castilian. Perhaps some of the old technical dictionaries will be the best works to consult. Buenos Aires Eclesiasticos.

Please, Dictionary of arts and sciences.

Salvian's Polygraphie.

I suppose you have Francisco Jofre, being out of the mainfold works. The original Spanish of which is in part IV of the Cat. No. 1349. This is also the work of Arcotes, Historia Natural de las Indias.

My also Rev. Dr. Cauffman, de Victoria, Medical.

The introduction of particular drugs or articles of commerce may also be found from The Customs House Rate Books, see those of 1582, 1612, 1635, 1669, 1671, 1675, in part II of my Cat. No. 1498, 1501. These Dr. Rate Brown are also valuable containing names of articles of commerce from time to time.

I remain Dear Sir,

Your obligedly,
