The late Mr. Bright purchased at the Strawberry Hill sale a volume in Ms. of Early English poetry (viz. Mysteries, old plays) of the 15th. century. Mr. Ben. Bright having kindly promised to lend me this Ms. I have called at Ham Green for the purpose of obtaining it, but as the bookseller was not able to find it, I should feel particularly obliged if Mr. R. Bright would try to discover the volume, I send it me if found.

handsome and thoughtful. I was told this was a visit from the president. I was surprised to see James Scott, who I had not seen for a long time. We chatted about old times and he mentioned that he had been to Europe recently. I agreed that it was a good country to visit and he commented on the beauty of the architecture there.

We parted ways and I continued my journey. I arrived at my destination and was welcomed by the local officials. We discussed the plans for the upcoming event and agreed on a course of action. The local residents were interested in participating and we made arrangements for them to attend.

I am looking forward to the event and hope it will be a success. I will keep you informed of any developments.

Sincerely,

P.S. I had a good time in Europe and hope to return soon.
