Archives Digitised Collections

Creator(s)

Title
Correspondence between Benjamin Heywood Bright and his bookseller, Thomas Rodd, including details of purchases made and accounts. Includes a small number of letters from other booksellers, and notes from family members regarding borrowing and inheriting the books. (28 of 28)

Date
1842

Description
Sub-Item: 1980.0075.07805

Terms and Conditions
Access: Copyright courtesy of the Bright family. Contact the University of Melbourne Archives for permission requests.

Preferred Citation
University of Melbourne Archives, Correspondence between Benjamin Heywood Bright and his bookseller, Thomas Rodd, including details of purchases made and accounts. Includes a small number of letters from other booksellers, and notes from family members regarding borrowing and inheriting the books. (28 of 28), 1980.0075.07805
LONDON, May 15th 1842

Dear Sir,

The Sherwood, Tovey & Comvey will purchase for their collection the Rothschild for 2000.

The Duke of Buckingham has been a collector for the last forty years. It is a very rich one. It contains the first editions of Shakespeare's Plays, and a copy of the First Folio. Among the rarities are a copy of a rare Roman pottery, a rare Greek, a Roman, and a rare Egyptian. The most interesting point is the fact that the coins are not even in the books. The coins are not even in the books.

The bulk of coins comes from Treves, and consists of those in his chest.
the eighties — we would like to have the first thing
be broken up to try in a perfect balance as long as the I am anything for it will enable me to obtain some portraits in the R. W. but not on the same basis as the his younger. The portrait will be sent you shortly it is very
I remain Yours True
Your Highness's
This Rott