Creator	University Of Melbourne. Office Of The Chancellor
Creator's Activity/Occupation	Chancellors
Biography: Previous Control Number: UA320. The role of the Chancellor: The Chancellor is the senior office holder of the University. The principal role of the Chancellor is to chair meetings of Council, oversee the development of its agendas, ensure that it functions properly as an inquiring and informed body, promote the aims and ethos of the University and represent and exercise the authority of Council at graduation ceremonies and on other formal occasions. In consultation with the Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor represents the University at meetings, functions and ceremonies in Australia and overseas, and, less formally, represents the interests of the University in the political, cultural and business life of the wider community. While not exercising executive authority in the University, the Chancellor takes the lead on behalf of Council in appointing, supporting and advising the Vice-Chancellor, and evaluating the performance of the Vice-Chancellor. Chancellors the University of Melbourne: The Hon.
