

Hank Row -

5.3.11.

My dearest Mother

We are looking forward to getting home on Thursday & quite excited about seeing the house. This boat gets in between 10 & 12 in the morning. Would you tell our boy to go down & wait for us? it is Gardiner's wharf. Hank Row. We are having a delightful trip - enjoying every minute of it. she is not much of a boat, but the captain is very nice & awfully pleased with us because we were married on the anniversary of his wedding day & are taking the same trip as he did for his honeymoon. I hope you & Mrs. Pears are well. & also Mr. Larsen. I wonder if he is helping you to fix up the house. it is awfully good of you & I hope not very much trouble.

With love from us both Love your loving daughter Blanche
