Creator's Historical Note
Louise B. M. Dyer [later Hanson-Dyer] (1884-1962), an Australian patron of music from Melbourne, founded the publishing company Éditions de l'Oiseau-Lyre in Paris in 1932, where it remained until moving to Monaco in 1948. Louise Dyer's aims were to publish good modern scholarly editions of early music and to support young contemporary composers by commissioning and publishing new works. After her first husband died in 1938, Louise Dyer married Joseph B. (Jeff) Hanson (1910-1971) and they worked together to build a catalogue of fine editions of music ranging from the thirteenth to the twentieth centuries. They also built an extensive catalogue of recordings which Jeff Hanson continued after Louise's death. In 1970 he sold the recording business to the Decca Record Company, London. From 1971 to 1996, Éditions de l'Oiseau-Lyre was run by J.B. Hanson's second wife, Margarita M. Hanson. On her retirement in 1995 the Board of Directors named Davitt Moroney as Président Délégué; and in 2001, Kenneth Gilbert. As the result of donations to the University of Melbourne given by both Louise Hanson-Dyer and J.B. Hanson, all the company's publications from 1979 were produced with the financial assistance of the University of Melbourne. From 1988, the company operated as Éditions de l'Oiseau-Lyre SAM (Société Anonyme Monégasque) and, from 1990 until its closure in 2013, was owned and managed by the Lyrebird Trust, of which the University is a Trustee. In 2013 Éditions de l'Oiseau-Lyre ended its presence in Europe and reverted to the parent holding, Lyrebird Press, at the University of Melbourne. The Éditions de l'Oiseau-Lyre archive is now one of the University's Rare Music collections.

Scope and Content of Collection/Series
This series consists of two alphabetically arranged sections of letters: the first section of correspondence with musicians (A-Z by surname) is held in eight boxes; the second section of correspondence with writers and artists (A-V by surname) is held in the ninth box. These letters were found with descriptive lists thought to have been compiled by Mary Criswick, an English guitarist, scholar, singer and educator. It seems that Criswick gathered the letters from previous files of correspondence and grouped them together by author as they are now described. One list cross references the letters to another correspondence series found in the office: the 'Secretarial Files' (now series reference number 2016.0048). Where cross references exist, following them might lead to further letters or to an understanding of the context of the original letters. The original filing system imposed by Criswick has been retained.

2016.0034 Unit 5	2016.0034.0012 0	Lewis, Anthony	1937-1954.	Five folders - manuscript letters with the day and month only, not the year. It is however possible to attribute broad periods according to the address, the type of paper and the subject matter. Note that photocopies of all the Lewis letters were sent to the Barber Institute, who then sent L'Oiseau-Lyre photocopies of Louise Dyer's letters to Lewis. Pre-war letters concern publications, those from after the war, recordings. Pre-war: 12 letters with copies of secretary's replies 1937-8. Contract for publication of Venus and Adonis, 1939. Post-war: 40 typed letters, 28 handwritten, with 24 copies of replies. From the Barber Institute the photocopies are of Louise Dyer's handwritten letters of 1953, and some from other musicians - Eric Blom (2 letters), Dyneley Hussey (5), Ibbs and Tillett (6), Leo Schrade (2), Martin Cooper (1), J Weber (1); copies of AL letters to Mrs Tillett, the Boyd Neal Orchestra, the Ambrosian Singers
