Being confined with a violent Cold, could not go to Markett to buy a Cow myself, but desired a man whom have been in Dairy Business upwards of 30 Years to buy a Cow & Half, which he have done, & sent to Ham Green by the man that sold it, as the man lived at St. Georges, where the cow was Bred, I paid £6.15.0 for her & Driving, by all acc^{ts}, she is a Likely cow for milk, I hope to be able to buy the other myself, & that soon, Likewise intend Examining your foot rott sheep, next week & see if they are now fitt for sale, if so, will sell them next Thursday, I was ashamed to see them when Bro^r. from Ham Green to Ashton they have been worn since by their selves in 30 acres of prime Grass & after the whole is done hope to see you in good health & settle, our Grand acc^{ts} over a Bottle of your old Port as I liked it so well. Last To Hen^{ry} Bright Esq^r.
