My Dear Sir.

I am sorry I did not receive your fax & the papers till this moment. — I can only now say that I fully approve all the letters you propose to write, except in that to Maxwell, & dispose ^{in his favor} our selves of the Estate, because it is Mr. Burlands for life with remainder to B. Gordon.
Yet they may agree to pass a fine and dispose of it in any way they Chuse. ^{after he comes of age} If you will have the goodness to have the letters prepared, I will sign them whenever you choose. I am

Dr Sir

Yours most Sincerely
