Dear friend
 Your fear of <sup>the</sup> East-Indian River? The Tark is ready to go when called for ~~and~~ as I have now run very fine <sup>with</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>argued</sup> ~~last~~ <sup>from</sup> the old birds. If you will inform me <sup>about</sup> ~~where~~ <sup>where</sup> where you would like to go with her I will accommodate you <sup>let in her large enough that the lady may not be disappointed</sup> with her and your horse comes and Ryan, Copper is <sup>available</sup> ~~for~~ <sup>and</sup> I shall be glad with a letter from you on this subject or even as Conscious of what you were due to Boston of some of our <sup>with the clergy I don't</sup> dissenting ministers and their <sup>men</sup> will I hope put an end to my recalcitrance & fear, Christ such my respectful remembrance to you, Lady, and all lagging friends, am assured it will not be in vain, <sup>mine</sup> to my last breath to keep <sup>as my wife & I are on the way</sup> ~~the cause~~ yet hope to have the cheaper of being than our long future Boston and an all kinds of letters of Brothers & Daughters are sent to Drury Self-dedication, which is not so grateful as our London the Indiana Bay's or their much longer by the way
