My dear Ben

Thank you for your letter informing me of your intention which after reading & a reading & consulting about we have determined need not influence our plans. which as Richard will have told you are to be in London on Thursday coming - I hope we shall not find you to any inconvenience by not waiting to take back your carriage - but as it seems to depend upon the continuance of ~~this~~ sun shine whether you come in it or a large one - which we could not under any circumstances undertake to bring back - we take for granted you will find no difficulty in making your arrangements for the return without trusting to us - I am very much amused at the idea of passing Mary and your children on the road but I cannot help it as I am wanted in school and have no time to lose in my return - I go to Bath on Wednesday afternoon - and take the York & North Coast on Thursday morning -

be one all quite well -

Yours ever
Saml. Bright
