173 Upper Thames Street
14 November 1830

Dr Sir

I have sent to Mr Wright your kind order and do assure you that these are the very Best Goods that could be got up of the sort. I have sent to Mr Wright one dozen of each more than there is in the ^{order} ~~package~~ but Mr Wright would not give me a Receipt for them as you did not order them but I bought the Lots of Fine Goods Expressly for you and thought making up more Goods than you ordered I thought a dozen of each more would not have been an object to your Brother as these are Good Goods as these are ^{Left} at Mr Wright's & I wish to take them away again if you will take them I will take off 5 Per cent instead of 2 1/2 the Trunks that is Left at Mr Wright's are 4th sizes if it would be of no object to you to take them I should take it has a favor the amount of them do not come to much I will state what these come to in case you take them from your order
